At its session on the 1st day of December, 2019
the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor Gesher Theater
in recognition of its standing as one of Israel’s most bold and original cultural institutions over three decades; its extraordinary success in providing an artistic home for talented immigrants from the former Soviet Union; its distinctive performance arts approach, which integrates Russian stage tradition with cutting-edge techniques for an exhilarating theatrical experience; and its ability to bridge between diverse cultures and languages within Israeli society, while also showcasing Israeli arts among a global audience,

by conferring upon it an HONORARY FELLOWSHIP
of Tel Aviv University

Professor Ariel Porat
President

Mr. Eli Gelman
