At its session on the 1st day of December, 2019 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Joseph Bar Natan

in recognition of his profound devotion to his home city of Tel Aviv and the wellbeing of its residents; his distinguished career over more than five decades as founder and chairman of a successful insurance company; his deep commitment to strengthening Israeli society by initiating and supporting a range of community, welfare and social programs; and his extensive record of public service with diverse non-profit organizations that provide equal opportunity to the weakest sectors of society and bridge social gaps, by conferring upon him an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP of Tel Aviv University
